

FREE HELP AND SUPPORT FOR YOU AND YOUR ORGANISATION

Volunteer Nelson will help you deal with any thorny problems that may arise in your work.

We have a team of people who've made their way in the world and offer their expertise and experience to help and support you, your Committee, Trust or Board through problems or difficulties that may be challenging you.

Working with you in a confidential one-to-one situation they will help you with a variety of issues including finances, funding, mediation, marketing, governance, management, supervision, or work-life balance.

Your adviser will help you:

- Develop a learning partnership that is not connected to a performance appraisal
- Uncover your own answers to challenges and discover new perspectives
- Identify skills and strategies that will allow you to be more effective in your role
- Ease your organisation through stages of development or change
- Access further external assistance and experience if necessary

This partnership between you and your adviser is flexible and can work with you for:

- A one-off session
- A series of sessions
- Ongoing monthly support by mutual arrangement
